

Competition is the key that made America one of the greatest countries on earth. Stopping healthy competition will bring an end to American growth. XM Radio brought a new exciting level of service to the consumer. We need to move forward instead of remaining in the "horse and buggy days."

This medium should be allowed to grow according to consumer desires unchecked by oppressive legislation which will only keep us in the Dark Ages.